

Introduction

Nepal Coffee Producers Association (NCPA) is the umbrella organization for all the Nepalese Coffee Organizations, businessmen & co-operatives involved in the coffee industry. It was established as a central committee in 2054 B.S. (1997) and since 2061 B.S. (2003) it has been running as an association. The association mainly works for institutional development, coffee production, processing technology, advertisement & marketing. It has been working jointly with the government of Nepal, private sectors, social organizations, and industrialists for policy development and implementation.

The objectives of NCPA

1) To produce, process, and manage markets for coffee and help provide different short-term, mid-term, and long-term planning.

2) To provide necessary research work, trainings, field visit, etc. It also endorses coffee producers, professional organizations, and cooperatives to achieve an international standard in the production and processing of coffee.

3) NCPA is committed to bringing together participants in order to address sustainability issues in the coffee sector. Herewith, any organization or individual can join in this sector. Members of NCPA can be coffee farmers, importers, exporters, traders, roasters, and retailers as well as civil society organizations - such as non-governmental organizations, public institutions, research organizations, and individuals who are committed to the overall development of the coffee sector of Nepal.

Why become a member of NCPA?

NCPA has had a long history of working directly with farmers, processors, and traders for a long time and has a chain of capable and certified technical members. Hence, the expertise and experiences of NCPA can be used at any given time and place by members who want to expand their knowledge and business in the coffee sector of Nepal.

Similarly, the association has time and again been providing technical assistance and training at various levels from the central to the field level. Hence members are always welcome to be a part of this program. NCPA has been actively participating in various national and an international exhibition related to coffee and has created an image of its own. Thus, members are always welcome to be a part of such events.

NCPA has been creating opportunities with international traders in all of its international exhibitions and hence these resources can be utilized by its members at any given time. It is an organization that has been actively involved in the coffee sector for more than three decades; therefore, any fellow members (individuals or civil society organizations) can have access to resources related to the coffee sector for research as well as the implementation of projects related to the coffee sector.

Since NCPA is a growing organization, we believe that in the near future, we will create more job opportunities in this sector as well as provide small soft loans to individuals or groups to start up businesses related to the coffee sector. NCPA has the right and ownership of “The Himalayan Specialty Coffee” which is an internationally recognized logo. Hence our members can use this logo under the strict supervision of NCPA.

NCPA is also an active member of the Specialty Coffee Association (SCA) situated in the United States of America. Through the reference of NCPA, members can also apply for membership in the SCA. NCPA can also assist its member in having their product (Coffee) lab tested internationally to know more about their product and get an international certificate for their product.
